WHICH WORD?

When Michael has been went was in college ten years ago, he decided study studying to study⁴¹ German. At the time, he thought had it been it was it's been⁴² a good idea, but now he isn't sure he made the right decision.

Last month Michael had an interview for a wonderful job in Italy, but he wasn't hired. If he he had he has⁴³ studied Italian in college, he thinks he might have gotten the job. Then last Saturday he was asked if he would whether will he if he can⁴⁴ come to an international party. When he got there, everybody was speaking Spanish, Japanese, Korean, and Chinese, and no one was speaking German! If Michael had studied one of those languages in college, he definitely would have had had would have had⁴⁵ more fun at the party. Then this morning, he met a very interesting French girl at a café. If he had studied French in college, he had must have might have⁴⁶ asked her to go on a date this weekend.

Michael is upset now. He hopes he had wishes he had wishes he has⁴⁷ learned another language. If he had known he wouldn't use German, he definitely would have hadn't wouldn't have⁴⁸ studied it. In fact, he told me he was is would be⁴⁹ going to start learning a new language next week. However, he said he hasn't couldn't won't⁵⁰ decide which language to study!
